VIRGINIA WILL PRESS HER CLAIM

Wants Judgment Against West Va For Latter's Portion of Debt.

THE POLICY OF DELAY.

Over Seven Million Dollars Due Old Dominion —Will Invoke Aid of the Supreme Court.

EAD BIG

Richmond, Feb. 8.—Unless the Legislature of West Virginia, at its present session, shows some disposition to treat with the Virginia Debt Commissioner concerning the amount of interest an dthe payment of the principal debt of this Commonwealth, Virginia will proceed to ask the Supreme Court of the United States to enter judgment for the sum of $7,182,507.41, with interest from March 1, 1861.

Nearly two years nave elapsed since the highest Federal court handed down an opinion to the effect that the state of West Virginia was due the Commonwealth of Virginia and her certificate holders the sum mentioned as West Virginia's share of the principal debt. No move has as yet been made looking to a settlement, nor to an agreement between the two governments on the subject of interest, as suggested by the court.

Every effort made by Virginia during forty years to secure a settlement of the proportionate amount of the debt of the State when West Virginia was created in 1863, by compromise, failed dismally. At each recurring session of the West Virginia Legislature there was a rush the opening day to see which member could get first to the clerk's desk with a resolution setting forth that the State owned Virginia nothing. At last this Commonwealth sued in the United States Supreme Court, claiming West Virginia should pay one third of the bonded deb as it stood in 1861, of which the counties included in the new State had received their proportionate part in public works.

Tired of "reliance upon the honor and constitutional obligations" of West Virginia, the debt commission will probably soon ask for final judgment.

WILL JOIN HIKE.

Virginia Suffragettes Will March to Washington.

Miss Rosalie Jones, general in command of the "hikers," who are due to leave New York next week, will receive reinforcements somewhere between here and Baltimore from a party of Norfolk young women who intend to walk to Washington and then go out along the turnpike to meet the New York party.

This information was received at Suffragette headquarters in Washington today. Mrs. Pauline Adams, a prominent suffragette of Norfolk, and president of the Norfolk Woman's Suffrage Association, will lead the party. She will be accompanied by her niece and six other young women, whose names were not given.

They will time their trip from Norfolk so as to reach Washington about February 25th. the day on which the Jones party is expected to reach Baltimore and will tramp out towards that city the morning that Miss Jones leaves here.

Finds Husband Insane.

New York, Feb. 8.—With the filing of the referree's report in a secert annulment suit here today the story is revealed of how Maud Hamilton Baker, daughter of Walter R. Baker, secretary of the Canadian Pacific railroad, and heiress to his millions, realized a month after her magnificent wedding in Montreal, that she had been courted and won by a lunatic.

Crushed to Death.

Mansfield, Eng., Feb. 8.—Thirteen men were killed and a number of others injured today at the Bolsover Colliery by the snapping of a chain to which was suspended a bucket containing 300 gallons of water.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

George S. Thompson, a negro, was held in bonds of $5,000 by Municipal Judge Courtney in Chicago yesterday on charges filed by Mrs. Mary Hanson, mother of the negro's 15-year-old epileptic white wife. The girl told in court how she left home after a quarrel with her mother and was married to Thompson by a white preacher in Niles, Mich. She testified that she was given drinks at Hammond, Ind., which dazed her. The court held that the girl was not legally married to the negro, as she is under 16 years of age. As a result of this marriage a bill recently was introduced in Congress intended to prohibit the marriage of whites and negroes.

Edward Benchoff, an invalid for years, died early yesterday morning from burns received Thursday afternoon when his clothing caught fire, probably from a tobacco pipe. The man, who was 35 years old, lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Benchoff, at Highfield, Md. For nine years he had been confined to his room with a disease known as hardening of the muscles, which doctors and specialists could not overcome. He was smoking upstairs when cries for help brought his mother and sisters hurrying to his room. Flames had enveloped his body by the time they arrived.

Mrs. Liege Gillmore confessed to the Webb City, Mo., police yesterday that she and James Lynn, of Galena, Kans., had murdered her husband last Thursday night. Both are under arrest, charged with first-degree murder. Mrs Gillmore declared that cruelties inflicted by her husband during 22 years of married life had become unberable. She said she and Lynn planned the murder at Miami, Okla., last summer. Thursday night, she said, she induced her husband to take her to a moving picture show. On the way home she asked him to take a short cut up an alley. In the alley she said Lynn fired the shot that killed her husband. After shooting Gillmore she said, Lynn took the gun and beat him over the head Serious trouble broke out again last night in the Paint and Cabin Creek coal districts of West Virginia when striking miners fired upon a Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train and poured a fusilade of bullets into the town of Mucklow. The train was kept under most continuous fire during the time it was traveling a half a mile, and the engineer and two passengers were struck by bullets.Special officers on the train returned the fire with rifles and machine guns. At midnight striking miners gathered rapidly at Mucklow, with more coming in every few minutes. Sherff Hill asked Governor Glasscock for troops.

Ethel Lorraine Belmont, the chorus girl wife of Raymond Belmont, son of August Belmont has filed an action for separation in the Supreme Court of New York. She says she received only $50 from her husband during the eight days they lived together as man and wife, and she now wants the court to award her suitable alimony. Mrs. Belmont,the papers show, has been searching diligently to find her elusive husband She thinks that he is now in Garnett, S. C., on a hunting trip. Mrs. Belmont alleges in her complaint that she and Belmont were married on November 21, last, in Jersey City, and that her husband deserted her November 29. It is said she will return to the stage.

The wedding ceremony at the Cathedral in Baltimore tomorrow morning of Duc de Richelieu and Miss Elinor Wise will not include a nuptial mass. At 9:30 last night Cardinal Gibbons gave out the following statement: "During the season of Lent marriages are not prohibited by the Catholic Church, as marriage is a sacrament, and sacraments may be administered at all times; but the church does prohibit the solemnization of marriages during Lent, and that means that the nuptial mass may not be used, and the nuptial blessing will not be given. Hence while Duc de Richelieu and Miss Wise have a perfect right to be married during Lent, the mass to be said will not be a nuptial mass."

CRAZED BY URÆMIA, COMMITS SUICIDE

Petersburg Treasurer Fires A Bullet Through His Brain.

BALANCES ACCOUNTS.

Long A Sufferer From Incurable Malady,Official Falls at Wife's Feet After Rash Act.

Petersburg, Feb. 8.—Mr. Wm. E. Ramey, the City Treasurer, committed suicide yesterday morning about 11 o'clock at his home on Adams street during a temporary fit of insanity caused by uraemic poisoning.

Mr. Ramey had been indisposed for a month or more and for the past ten days had suffered an attack of grippe, He had been able, however, to attend to his official duties and was at his office Thursday.

Yesterday morning he left home, after breakfast, and proceeded to his office in the Courthouse building, where he turned over to his deputy, Mr. Lockett, some money which had been paid to him on the street. Mr. Ramey had balanced his accounts and there was a shortage of three cents. He turned over to Mr. Lockett the amount, saying to his deputy that if he could not find the three cents to balance the account, as he did not want any discrepancy to appear.

Mr. Ramey then told Mr. Lockett that he was going home for a short time and would return later in the day. When he arrived at his residence Mrs. Ramey asked what was the matter and he answered nothing; that he wished to go to the bath room. Remaining in the bath room unusually long, Mrs. Ramey called to her husband and receiving no answer entered the room through a window, the door being locked, and found him unconscious on the floor. Dr. Early was immediately summoned and said Mr. Ramey had suffered a convulsion, due to uraemic poisoning.

Mr. Ramey was then put to bed and Dr. Early spent two hours in an effort to relieve him, finally succeeding in getting him quiet. Doctor Early then prepared to leave and had called Mr. Forrest Tucker, a relative of deceased who was in the room at the time, out into the hall to consult him about securing a nurse. Mr. Tucker called Mrs. Ramey in order to consult her and Mrs. Ramey, after being out of the room not more than two minutes, returned to find that Mr. Ramey had gotton out of bed, had secured from the bottom of a trunk a 38 calibre revolver and was standing in the middle of the room with the pistol in his hand.

Mrs. Ramey at once grappled with her husband, but with superhuman effort he freed his right hand holding the weapon, brushed her aside and quickly fired a bullet through his brain and fell dead at his wife's feet. The bullet entered the right side of the head and came out on the opposite side.

Wm. E. Ramey was a native of Prince George county and was 56 years of age. He came to Petersburg many years ago and for a long time was engaged in the grocery and commission business. He retired from business upon being elected City Treasurer and had filled that office in a most satisfactory manner for the past seven years. His term of office would have expired the first of next year, and he was a candidate for re-election.

The deceased is survived by his wife and two sons.

Killed Father.

Chillicothe, Mo., Feb. 8.—Confronted by bloody fingerprints identified as his own, Lee Hoyt, twenty-one years old, today admitted the murder of his father, Edward Hoyt, a wealthy cattleman, in November 1911, according to County Prosecutor E. L. Marshall. The elder Hoyt's head was crushed with a mattock. The boy said his father had been too severe with him.

Gradually rising temperature and continued fair weather is the prospect for Alexandria and vicinity for the next twenty-four hours, according to the weather bureau

NEW CHURCH BUILDING

Memorial Tablet and Window for Westminster Hall of Presbyterians

The new Westminister building of the Second Presbyterian Church, at the corner of Prince and St. Asaph street which is rapidly nearing completion, and which will be dedicated early in March, when a number of distinguished laymen and former pastors of the church will be present, is to be adorned by two handsome memorials, according to an announcement which has just been made by Rev. John Lee Allison, D. D., pastor of the church.

One of these will be in the shape of a handsome bronze tablet, which will be placed on the outside of the building, in memory of Edmund F. Witmer, who for many years was an elder of the church and for twenty-five years the superintendent of the Sunday school. The tablet will be presented by W. H. Hunter, and will be of handsome design and workmanship.

The other memorial will be in the shape of a large stained glass window, which will be placed by Mrs. Frank S. Harper, widow of a prominent business man of Alexandria, who was greatly interested in the new building and a liberal contributor to the funds for its erection.

A meeting of the committees who were appointed last Sunday to have charge of the details of the dedication will be held tomorrow morning following the regular chruch service.

NEGROES IN A FIGHT.

Belligerent Resists Officer And is Clubbed by Latter.

Considerable excitement was caused between three and four o'clock yesterday afternoon by a fight in an upper room of a house a short distance north of the paint shop of the Southern Railway. The scrap was between John Bryant and Hattie Stephenson, both colored. Officer Kearn entered the house and started to place the combatants under arrest, when Bryan positively refused to accompany him, alleging he was a jail trusty. When the officer attempted to seize him the negro placed his hand in his hip pocket as though he was about to draw a weapon and exclaimed, "One or the other of us must die here." At this juncture Officer Kearn dealt Bryant a heavy blow on the head with his baton which subdued him. The blood flowed freely from the wound, and a crowd soon gathered about the house. Bryant and his female companion were marched to the station house and locked up. They were brought before the Police Court this morning, when the evidence of the officer was substantially as given above. The woman in her statement denied the charge that she and Bryant were fighting, alleging they were playing, and Bryant asserted that he was not up stairs at the time. Other evidence was given to the effect that many complaints had been made in the neighborhood concerning rows in this house. Justice Caton imposed a fine of $5 upon the prisoners.

THOUSANDS OF TURKS FALL.

Ten Thousand Are Said to be Prisoners.

Sofia, Feb. 8.—An official statement by the war office today declared that 15,000 Turks have been killed by the Bulgarians fighting in the Gallipoli and 10,000 taken prisoners.

The Turkish army in the peninsula early today was retreating in a panis, the wildest confusion prevailing all along the line. Bulgarian cavalry was in pursuit of the Turks, and many were cut down as they ran.

London, Feb. 8.—The bombardment of Adrianople was uninterrupted. As far as could be learned, the cannonading was without serious damage to the town and the fal lof the Holy City was no nearer accomplishment than when the war was resumed last Monday night. Less than 100 men have been killed, only eighty houses destroyed by fire, and one mosque damaged.

PREPARING TO LEAVE.

People of Princeton to Bid Farewell to President-Elect Wilson on Saturday, March 1st.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The inaugural parade for President-Elect Wilson now promises to be one of the longest and most interesting that ever has passed through Pennsylvania Avenue, from the Capitol to the White House. Aside from the strictly naval and military contingents, the college representation will be one of the large and varied features.

Practically all of the colleges in the Eastern part of the country will have representatives in the parade. Several smaller colleges in the Southern states today signified their intention of sending groups of marchers, either in uniform or as civilians. The War Department decided today that it may use a portion of its appropriation for army transportation, which will include the West Point cadets' trip to Washington who had feared they would have to defray their own expenses.

Princeton, N. J., Feb. 8.—Residents of Prrinceton—students, members of the faculty, neighbors and town folk generally—will say good-bye to Woodrow Wilson on the evening of Saturday, March 1, two days before he leaves for Washington to assume the presidency.

Plans for a big farewell demonstration to the President-elect, who has lived here for more than twenty-seven years, were announced today by Joseph Hoff, a member of the Democratic State Committee, and an intimate friend of the Governor.

"We want to show Governor Wilson that while we regret to lose him as a neighbor," said Hoff," we are glad that a resident of the town should be going to the White House."

The farewell probably will take the form of a reception at the Wilson bungalow. Citizens of the town will co-operate with the students in making the celebration one of great enthusiasm. A big parade will start form the centre of town and march down Cleveland Lane to the Wilson home. Thes tudents who have just organized a brass band to lead them in the inaugural parade, expect to give the band its first try-out on that occasion.

The President-elect went to Philadelphia today for another visit to his dentist.

These are but a few of the many requests which "General" Rasalie Jones, commander of the approaching suffragette march to Washington, is receiving from manufacturing firms seeking advertisements for their wares Her mail is flooded with samples of various articles which might be of use to the women on their 230-mile journey—from hair pins to pedometers—and if the flood keeps up she promises an auction sale of her collection for the benefit of "the cause."

CITY PROPERTY EXEMPT

Judge Barley Orders Market Building and Gas Works to be Taken From Land Book

In the Corporation Court today Judge Louis C. Barley entered an order declaring the listing of the market building and gas plant of this city for taxation unconstitutional and contrary to the laws of the state. The Judge's order was in connection with a petition of the authorities of the city for correction in assessment. The state authorities are allowed sixty days in which to file an appeal. The Commissioner of the revenue in the meantime is directed by the Judge to strike from the land book the property referred to.

R. Lee Moore, the State Auditor, it will be remembered, several months ago ordered the commissioner of the revenue, C. H. Callahan, to list the city hall building and the city gas works for taxation. This action caused considerable indignation in Alexandria at the tme, and the authorties determined to test the validity of Mr. Moore's procedure.

For three weeks his illness had been critical, and the members of his family were gathered at his bedside when the end came. He was seventy-eight years old.

DOCTORS MUST REGISTER

Few Weeks Remain in Which to File Certificates Under the Law

Only a little more than a month remains in which physicians of Virginia may file their certificate of license with the clerks of courts, as required by an act of the Legislature passed last winter. Every practicing physician in the State must attend to this duty by March 13, or within one year of the day the Governor signed the new law.

It is explained that no hardship whatever is worked to any one who is entitled to be qualified, and that the proceeding will do away with quacks and with illegal practitioners in Virginia.

Practitioners duly registered may sue in the courts of the Commonwealth for recovery of charges for medical or surgical attendance and advice; they may sign valid medical, death and birth certificates; they may assume the title of doctor, and may be exempt from serving on juries and in the militia.

In connection with the above the following letter received by N. S. Greenaway, clerk of the court of this city, from Herbert Old, secretary and treasurer of the Virginia State Board of Medical Examiners, will be of interest to all concerned.

Norfolk, Va, Feb. 4,' '13.

Mr. Nevell S. Greenaway,
Clerk Corporation Court,
Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir:—

Physicians who registered their State Board certificates in your office thereby qualifying themselves as legal practitioners under the old statute, will not have to register their certificates. However, if they have removed from the county or city in the State where they originally registered same, they have to re-register in the district in which they are now practicing.

Yours very sincerely,
HERBERT OLD,
Secretary-Treasurer.

Saved by a Policeman.

Policeman William G. Stott, of the Third precinct, probably saved the life of Guy Shawen, an oil wagon driver, this morning, when his clothing caught fire by an explosion of gasoline while filling the tank of an automobile. As the man ran from an alley, his body converted into a human torch, his screams attracted Police Stott, who was standing on the corner in front of the Arlington Hotel site, a short distance away. Taking off his overcoat Stott ran to Shawen's aid and managed to smother the flames which had burned off practically all of his clothing below the hips.

J. William May Tells of His Experience in His Trip to the Antipodes

An appreciative audience gathered in the Young People's Building last night to hear the observations of J. William May, who recently played the part of a globe trotter. His lecture was illustrated by slides which added great interest to the lecture.

Mr. May told of his experience in crossing the continent to San Francisco, his voyage from that port to Honolulu, his arrival at Manila, visit to Japan, China and the East Indies, the run through the Suez Canal, into the Mediterranean, sights at Cairo and other places on the African coast, trips to European capitals and his safe return to the city of his birth. The trip extended over a period of four months and was made on one ship.

The lecture throughout was interesting and instructive, and Mr. May was listened to with close attention by his audience.

The proceeds from the lecture will be devoted to the sick benefit of Seminole Tribe of Red Men.

A large percentage of the members o fthe Hebrew congregation of this city together with members of evangelical denominations gathered last night in the Synagogue on north Washington street to hear Mr. Alexander Aaronsohn's lecture on the "Divinity of Pain."

The speaker, who is a young man, devoted about fifteen minutes to his subject, during which he uttered many truths concerning the divine economy which should be remembered, calling upon every member of the race not to complain of the mishaps and worries incident to mundane pilgrimmage. He threw out many hints calculated to blunt the keen edge of afflictions, which are often blessings in disguise.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

GIVES UP DIAMONDS.

Bristol Concern Forced to an Unusual Measure.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 8.—A sensational revelation was made this week at the meeting of the creditors of the J. A. Wilkinson Lumber Company, the big lumber concern of this city which was thrown into bankruptcy some months ago, when it developed from the testimony of President J. A. Wilkinson that the company in an effort to save itself after sustaining a loss sufficient to cause its failure, undertook to kite $200,000 of its promissory notes, and did, in fact, get $40,000 or more of them on the market through two Eastern men, one of whom cannot now be located by those interested.

Nothing was known as to the financial responsibility of these men. Mr. Wilkinson says the company received nothing whatever on some of the kited notes, which, now held by innocent purchasers, are here for collection.

The company made a contract with Cohic and Myers, the former of Jersey City, and the latter of Philadelphia, under which they hawked the notes of the Wilkinson corporation about the country. They were to receive 40 per cent of the proceeds and the company 60 per cent. However, it was explained that when the paper became due they were to assume 30 per cent, leaving them a net profit of only 10 per cent.

Atorneys for the creditors endeavored to get information from Cohic but he wrote back asking $125 to give it. The creditors refused this and sent a lawyer to Jersey City, who got his deposition without giving him anythng.

The Charles R. Partridge Lumber Company failed in Jersey City in May, 1912. J. A. Wilkinson Lumber Company was an accommodation endoser for it to the extent of $40,000 and the concerns held the paper of each other for approximately this sum. When the Partridge Company failed, it is said that the loss entailed by the Bristol concern was sufficient to carry it down, but shortly after that J. A. Wilkinson met Cohic and Myers and engaged them to sell his promissory notes. One of the holders is A. Simon Sons, diamond dealers, of Philadelphia, who gave diamonds for the paper. The innocent holders are all prosecuting their claims, as the notes are negotiable.

It was in May that the contract for the kiting of the $200,000 worth of paper was made with Cohic and Myers. The cash did not come until September 13th, and only then when Price and Pierce, Ltd., of London, failed to back the Bristol concern, it having formerly come to its rescue. The London concern now has a claim for $43,000, for advances, but the other creditors are fighting the claim on the ground that it is an obligation of J. A. Wilkinson indivdually and not properly one of the Wlkinson corporation.

KILLS WIFE IN QUARREL.

Nelson Carter, Husband, Jailed on Murder Charge.

The couple engaged in a quarrel and Carter drove his wife from the house and fired five shots at her as she was leaving, all of which took effect. The woman fell dead in the yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter have lived unhappily together for some years. Some time ago Mrs. Carter instituted proceedings for a divorce, but finally withdrew them. Later her husband instituted suit for divorce and withdrew it.

Mrs. Carter is survived by five children, all girls, aged 5, 8, 14, 18 and 20 years. The two older girls are living in Richmond.

GRAND LODGE OF MASONS.

Richmond, Feb. 8.—Tuesday evening next the Grand Lodge of Masons in Virginia will call to order for the one hundred and thirty-fifth annual session. The sessions are to be held in the Masonic Temple and will be presided over by Most Worshipful W. L. Andrews, of Roanoke.

Among the matters of prime importance will be the selection of a corps of officers for the coming year. The privilege of the grand master succeeding himself is always extended, and it is believed that this time Mr. Andrews will agree to fill the post for another year. In only one instance in recent years has a grand master declined to follow himself in the office, that being the case of Mr. Edward N. Eubank, of Newport News, who retired after after serving one year.

The death of Dr. George W. Carrington, the grand secretary, makes a vacancy in the line, and this will have to be filled at this session.

The secretary has to be a diplomat to handle all the questions that arise and which give hard study and prompt answers.

Reports from the order at large this year will show that it has been one of the best in its history. The lodges are all doing work, many have more than they can do, and new lodges are coming into existence at points where none have before been organized. The order is in a prosperous condition in every quarter. The lodges will all be represented here this session, meaning that there will be between six and seven hundred delegates in the city.

The committee in charge of the work of the order—known as the working committee—is already in session here daily, and is imparting the secert work to the delegates and to all who may care to attend the meetings, which are being held in the Richmond Hotel.

BIBLE IN RICHMOND SCHOOLS.

Mother Club Endorses Action of City Board.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 8.—The executive committee of the Federation of Mother's Club met Thursday afternoon at Springfield School and went on record as endorsing the action of the school board in restoring the Bible in the schools.

The executive commitee of the Federation then took the floor and adopted the following resolutions regarding the use of the Bible in the schools:

Whereas, A public controversy has lately arisen over the propriety or advisability of the use of the Bible in the schools of the city and,

Whereas, A free expression of opinion among all leaders in the social worldd would seem to be useful in order that the real sentiment of the majority of the people be ascertained; and,

Whereas, As an organization representing the mothers of the public schools, we speak for those most immediately concerned with the question at issue, therefore, be it

Resolved, That, we, the executive board of the federation of mothers' clubs, heartily commend and endorse the action of the school board in restoring the Bible to its old place in the morning exercises of our schools; believing such action to be in thorough accord with the wishes of the majority of the patrons of the schools.

CONFIRMS SENTENCE.

Court at Richmond Ends Long-Standing Asheville Case.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 8.—After being considered by the Appellate court three times and once going to the United States Supreme Court, the case of Wm. E. Breese and Joseph E. Dickerson, charged with embezzlement of funds belonging to the First National Bank of Asheville, N. C., while they were officers of that institution, was concluded yesterday.

The Federal Circuit Court of Appeals handed down an opinion affirming the verdict of the District Court at Asheville, which sentenced the two men to two years each in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., and imposed a fine of $2,500 each.

The main portion of the 16 years litigation hinged upon the question of conspiracy. Locke Craig, now Governor of North Carolina, was at one time attorney for the men.

BRITISH SHIP LIBELED.

Survivor of the Julia Luckenbach Seeks Damages.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 8.—Frederick R. Hunt has filed a libel against the British steamship Indrakaala in the United States district court here, claiming $30,000 damages.

Hunt, who was chief officer of the steamer Julia Luckenbach, when she was sunk January 3 off Tangier Sound Chesapeake Bay, by colliding with the Indrakuala, claims that he suffered serious injury, and has been unable to work since the accident, as a result of which he says his nervous system has been shattered. Hunt alleges that the collision was due solely to negligence on the part of those navigating in the loss of the captain, his wife; and fourteen members of the Luckenbach's crew.

THROWN FROM WINDOW.

White Man Badly Hurt in Row With Negroes.

Richmond, Feb. 8.—Following a brawl with several negroes in the house at 330 North Eighteenth street, yesterday morning about 1:20 o'clock, Leftwitch Richardson, a young white man, was hurled bodily from a second story window into the street, receiving hurts that may result in his death. Several bones were shattered, and he received severe contusions on the skull, which further scrutiny proved to be fractured. Richardson was unconscious when removed to the City Hospital by the city ambulance.

The policemen surrounded the house, cutting off the avenues of escape, and arrested four people who were found in various parts of the building.

William Banks, Luther Williams and Etonia Banks, three negroes who were found by the officers, were taken, all protesting their innocence, to the First Police station, and booked as suspicious characters. Lillian Nolte, twenty-four years old, a white woman, who accompanied Richardson to the house, was also taken into custody by the officers as a suspicious character.

According to the story picked up by the police, Richardson went to the house in company with the Nolte woman, encountered the party of drinking negroes, became embroiled in a row with them, and was finally pitched out of the window on his head. His companion seemed frightened by her arrest, and was reticent in regard to the details of the affair.

After a cursory examination on the grounds, Ambulance Surgeon H. G. Hawkins rushed Richardson to the City Hospital. There the physicians worked over him for hours, finding dangerous wounds about the scalp and ugly bruises. It was impossible to determine the extent of his injuries.

HOPES FOR IMMORTALITY.

Holding a newspaper of a date 40 years ago, marked in heavy lines about the obituary of his wife, Chas. Williams, 80, a recluse, was found dead on a cot in his home in Philadelphia.

The police say he was wealthy, and the owner of at least fifteen houses in various parts of the city. Since the death of his wife he lived alone and shunned humanity.

The sad story of Orpheus and Eurydice is often brought to mind. The distress of the minstrel at the tearing of his companion from his side, her subsequent recovery and sudden flight from his arms has been pathetic reading since the days of early Greece. The last chapter of the story which tells of final reunion of the devoted couple and their pereambulations in the Elysian Fields while bringing hope to the souls of the ancients, has found a responsive chord in the souls of succeeding generations whether believers or unbelievers in revelation.

It is said that when Andrew Jackson was nearing the confines of the other world a minister made a call on him, and during his stay the latter spoke of the hope of immortality which is inborn in the human race. "Old Hickory" asked if this great desideratum was to be universal. The minister could not give the former president such an assurance. The hero of New Orleans brought the interview to a sudden close by saying, " If I fail to find my wife in the other world, it will be no heaven to me."

LIVING IN A WONDERFUL AGE.

A special dispatch received in Rome from the Island of Lemnos, in the Aegean Sea, says the Greek aviator, Lieut. Mutusis, accompanied by Greek Capt. Maraitmis, Thursday night made a daring flight over the straits of the Dardanelles in a hydroaeroplane which covered 180 kilometers.

The dispatch says that a thorough reconnoissance of the Turkish fleet was made, and that the aviator then flew over Maldos, near the southern point of the Gallipoli peninsula and overlooking the Dardanelles, and droped four bombs on the arsenal there.

The aviator reports that as his machine passed over the fleet he saw flashes from the vessel's guns as they fired at him. The hydroaeroplane was not hit.

Three bombs were aimed at Turkish worships. Two of them fell in the water and the third of them exploded on the shore without doing any damage.

We live in a wonderful age which surpasses the dreams of the ancients. When the Greeks of other days read of the feats of Daedalus flying across the Aegean Sea they did so with amusement similar to us while pursuing the pleasant stories of the Aribian Nights' Entertainment. In their wildest flights of imagination they never thought a time would come when welfare would be carried on from the clouds. Yet such is the case today. Had Xerxes been vested with the gift of prophecy when he was about to cross the Dardanelles, with the soldiers armed with swords, slings and bows, and he could have seen aerial Greeks disputing his passage, as his successors, the Turks, now behold, and ignorant of the time of fulfillment of the vision, he would doubtless have hastily turned his army back towards Persia.

GAZETTE IS YEARS OLDER.

The first number of the London Morning Advertiser was issued 119 years ago today, February 8, 1794. The Advertiser is the junior by six years of the Times, the greatest tradition in English journalism, now the property of Lord Northcliffe. The Post was founded in 1786, and is the oldest of London's daily journals.

The Daily Mail was founded in 1896 by now Lord Nortcliffe; the Globe was first issued in 1803; the Standard dates from 1827; the News 1846; the Chronicle and the Telegraph, in 1855, and the Pall Mall Gazette in 1865.

The Alexandria Gazette was founded prior to 1784, official records showing this fact. Copies of the paper are in existence bearing date of 1792. The complete files of the paper start with 1800 when members of the Snowden family commenced its publication.

Death of Captain Roby.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 8.—Captain T. W. Roby, comptroller of the Seaboard Air Line Railway, died at 10:30 o'clock this morning at his home in Releigh Court, following a stroke of apoplexy, which came suddenly at the Monticello Hotel at 10:15 o'clock Thursday night, after adjournment of the evening session of the first day's conference of the Southeastern Railway Accountants' Association, of which he was a member.

FUGITIVE CAUGHT.

Charged With Seduction, Caught At Crisfield, Md.

Crisfield, Md., Feb. 8.—At the request of Sheriff B. T. Melson, of Accomac county, Va., Sheriff Harding P. Tull, of Someset, yesterday morning arrested Hilden Ewell, of Hunting Creek, Va.

Ewell's arrest brings to a close a chase which has taken the authorities of the two counties to every point along the water course of the Eastern Shore and to many points along the Potomac. Ewell is charged with the seduction of Miss Shreeves, a member of one of the oldest and best known families on the Eastern Shore section of the Old Dominion. He is a member of a prominent Virginia family and the laying of the charge against him caused considerable excitement in his home section.

He managed to escape on a dredge boat and for the past two months has evaded the efforts of the Accomac authorities to apprehend him. At a late hour Thursday night Sheriff Tull located him on a dredge boat lying in the Crisfield harbor and immediately communicated with the Virginia authorities. He was instructed to arrest Ewell, and did so about daylight this morning.

Woman Kills Husband.

Just after she arose yesterday morning, Mrs. Johanna Crecellus, of St. Louis, 32 years of age, shot and killed her husband as he lay asleep. She gave as her reason for the act the fear that he might out live her. Mr. Crecellus was eight years his wife's senior, but Mrs. Crecellus said that from the very day they were married she always feared that her husband would outlive her. "I loved him," said the frantic woman in her confession, "but it was that love that made the thought of his living after me unbearable. For the last two years this thought has haunted me, and it has become stronger every day. I studied Christian Science literature, and believed that that might dispel my mad idea.

"If he died, I thought, it would be easy to tell every one that I had heard a burglar enter the place. I did that. But now that I know I have killed him I regret it. It would have been even better to die and know that he might marry again than to know that I am his murderess."

Mr. Lashly, the prosecuting attorney, after hearing the woman's story, asked the county court for an order for Mrs. Crecellus' commitment to the St. Louis City Hospital in an observation ward. This order was issued.

For the Children

The young lady in the picture surely has gone to a great deal of trouble with her valentine. Just think what an amount of work and patience were required to fashion such a large and beautiful heart! She is evidently pleased with her handiwork. The expression on her face shows that. Of course she must have made it all by herself! She wouldn't look so happy otherwise. Wonder who she intends it for? Perhaps for papa or perhaps for mamma. More likely it is for mother, although it is hard to tell. Anyway, whoever gets it will be overjoyed, for who could help being happy when such a charming little girl remembers them so lovingly on Valentine morning?

Lincoln and the Boy.

When the president was in Springfield, Ill., he met a little boy who was introduced to him and allowed to shake the great man's hand. Of course the boy boasted of this honor among his schoolmates, who wouldn't believe him, making his life miserable by their unkind speeches. Young America, however hurt he felt, was not going to be put down by a little thing like that. No, indeed! He sat down and wrote a letter to Lincoln telling him of his trouble. After awhile he received a letter which is still preserved. It read:

Executive Mansion, March 19, 1861.
To Whom It May Concern:
I did see and talk with Master George Evans Potter last May at Springfield, Ill.
Respectfully, A. LINCOLN.

From that time young George, instead of being laughed at, became the envy of the other boys. The part of the story that most interests us, however, is that Lincoln at this anxious time, amid the thousand things demanding his attention, should have found time to heed the unimportant request of a schoolboy. It shows us that Lincoln hated all injustice, however humble the object of it might be.

Lincoln, the Kind Hearted.

When Lincoln visited Fortress Monroe in 1863 his attention was called to a narrow door, bound with iron, the use of which he was anxious to learn.

"What is it?" he asked.

"Oh, that is the sweat box," was the reply. "It is used for refractory sailors. A man in there is treated to a big dose of steam heat and has very little ventilation. It brings him around pretty quickly."

Lincoln, ever merciful, demanded that he be allowed to try the treatment to which thousands of American sailors were subjected yearly.

Taking off his hat—for he was several inches over six feet in height—he entered the inclosure, which he found to be little more than three feet in length or width. At a signal from him the door was to be opened. It was then closed and the steam turned on. He had been inside hardly three minutes before the signal was given. President Lincoln had experienced something he had never known had existed before. Turning to Secretary Welles of the navy department, he ordered that no such inclosure as the sweat box should ever be allowed on any vessel flying the American flag.

Conundrums.

Why are bakers the most self denying people? Because they sell what they knead (need) themselves.

What relation is that child to its own father who is not its own father's own son? His daughter.

When does a pig become landed property? When it is turned into a meadow.

Making Valentines.

All the year we save up things
Cut from papers, hearts and rings.
Little boys called Cupids, too,
And all sorts of flowers will do.

Then we take some paper white,
And we scallop it just right,
And across the top we write
Some nice line that reads like this:
"To my sweetheart, with a kiss."

Now we're ready to begin.
And we paste a Cupid in
And perhaps a wreath and dove,
With a scroll which says, "True love."

We pick out from all the rest
One for mother that is best,
And we write, "Our hearts are true,
Dearest Valentine, to you."

ACHING KIDNEYS CURED IN ALEXANDRIA

Are YOUR Kidneys Weak?

HOW TO TELL.—First read the testimony, and learn what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for others.

Then if your back aches, if sharp pains strike you when stooping or lifting; if you are lame in the morning, like too much exercise; if not here dizzy spells and are distressed, despondent and inclined to worry over trifles; if the kidney secretions are highly colored and full of sediment; if passages are too frequent, scanty, too free or scalding, it is likely that your kidneys need quick attention.

Take a sample of the urine and let it stand for 24 hours. If a sandy, brick-dust sediment settles at the bottom of the receptacle, there is evidence enough to suspect the kidneys.

If Your Back Aches and Your Kidneys are Weak, Get the Kidney Remedy That Has Been Proved GOOD Again and Again Right Here in Alexandria.

Alexandria People Tell It:

King Street

H. C. Smith, tailor, 919 King St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I hope my testimonial will be the means of getting other sufferers to use Doan's Kidney Pills and be cured as I was. I couldn't begin to tell the agony I endured from my back. I didn't find anything that would cure me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They made me well in less than a month, and during the past two years I have had no trouble. The testimonial I made at the time they cured me still holds good."

Prince Street

Mrs. J. B. Briscoe, 118 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills have been so wonderful that I feel it is my duty to tell of it. I had dizzy spells and the kidney secretions were in bad shape. When I lay down there was a feeling of distress across my back which took all sleep from me. Morning I was all worn out and my back was sore and lame. The pain affected my nerves and I was nearly frantic. I did a lot of doctoring and took different remedies, but my health became worse. With kidneys were causing all this trouble. After all this suffering I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They relieved the trouble. I urge other sufferers to take Doan's Kidney Pills."

Duke Street

Mrs. C. V. Gardner, 1211 Duke St., Alexandria, Va., says: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some years ago has been permanent and I haven't needed anything for my kidneys since. I had not suffered very long before I took Doan's Kidney Pills and didn't really know what was the matter, but I got real bad with weakness and lameness through my back. For a few days I couldn't attend to my housework. I had to lie down most of the time, and it was the same when I went to bed at night. I finally got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug store and they cured me."

Queen Street

J. T. Langley, 513 Queen street, Alexandria, Va., Says: "During the past four years, since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney complaint, there has been no return of the trouble. I repeat the praise I have previously given this remedy. I had a bad back and I think the trouble was caused by a strain. I could not stoop, and when I got up in the morning, I could hardly move. I noticed sediment in the kidney secretions. The many good reports I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, led me to get a box of them at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug Store. They fixed me up in fine shape."

N. Royal Street

C. N. Rauch, 223 North Royal St., Alexandria, Va., says: "Not a symptom of kidney complaint has bothered me since I used Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago. This speaks well for the remedy. I was troubled by my kidneys for three years and I think lifting was the cause. I had to give up my work but my back continued to bother me. I doctored for a long while with one of the leading physicians in this city, but he did not cure me. When I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Leadbeater & Co.'s Drug Store. In a few days they relieved me and I continued taking them until I was well."

S. Lee Street

Mrs. Nettie G. Davis, 425 S. Lee St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I can give Doan's Kidney Pills my highest endorsement. I was cured of constant backache, lameness in my loins and dizzy spells. This remedy also strengthened my kidneys. You may continue the use of the testimonial I gave two years ago. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occassionally with the most satisfactory results."

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

To Raze Historic House.

Having purchased the historic house at Van Cortlandville, near Peekskill, Walter S. Hamilton of Nyack will raze the edifice and replace it with a fine modern home.

During the Revolutionary war the old building was a popular way-side inn, being a regular stopping place for parties of Washington's troops as they went up and down the Hudson river. And the general himself often visited the place for rest and refreshment.

A platoon of soldiers guarding Major Andre after his capture took an early morning breakfast there on December 20, 1780. Efforts made by Daughters of the American Revolution to save the premises from destruction seem to have met with no success.

Polite for the Pastor's Benefit.

Little Mary was not especially noted for her table manners so that on several occasions she had dined on the kitchen cabinet when there was company in the house. But the dinner prepared for the new minister was entirely too tempting to be passed over lightly, so she resorted to all kinds of promises for the privilege of coming to the table.

True to her word, Mary was on her very best behavior, but she did so want a second piece of cake and the plate was over by the minister entirely out of her reach. After giving the matter considerable thought she rolled her hands meekly and exclaimed:

"Mr. Blair, please pass the cake for Jesus' sake!"—Kansas City Star.

Truth About Old Age.

"I agree with Professor Metchnikoff about the wisdom of the old. Professor Osler made it fashionable to fix forty gray hairs, but my experience has been that the old not only possess wisdom, but they seek it also."

With a smile, Mr. Baer added:

"The only people who think they are too old to learn are those who really are too young."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Senator Martin today introduced an amendment in the senate to appropriate $400,000 for the construction of a roadway between Washington and Mount Vernon. The amendment was referred to the committee having in charge the army appropriation bill. When this bill comes up for consideration on the floor of the Senate, Senator Martin will endeavor to have his amendment incorporated in the measure.

According to Senator Martin's amendment to the plan is to construct a National Highway beginning at some point on the south bank of the Potomac River at or near the Arlington Cemetery and extend to or near Mt. Vernon. No route is named in the amendment, but there is a provision which leaves to the decision of the Secretary of War which one of the three routes heretofore surveyed by authority of Congress is to be selected. The road is to be built under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of War.

No more than $50,000 of the $400,000 to be appropriated is to be expended in the acquirement of the necessary right of way. The right of way, according to the provisions of the amendment, can be had by either purchase or condemnation, whichever the Secretary of War deems the most feasible. The remaining $350,000, after the purchase of the right of way, is to be used in the construction of the highway.

Representative Akin, of New York, today introduced the following resolution in the House, which explains itself:

"That the Secretary of Agriculture be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to expend not exceeding one thousand dollars in the purchase of six high grade, thoroughbred turkey buzzards and 99 thoroughbred humming birds, each to be examined and passed upon by Dr. A. D. Melvin, Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, as to soundness of limb and heart strength, in order that a test may be made as to the value of the offspring, be they gnats or fleas, for agricultural purposes, and to report to congress whether the experiment is more valuable to the American farmer than the one now going on in this bureau where thousands of dollars have been expended in buying zebras in Africa and transporting the same to the District of Columbia, where they are joined in wedlock to Missouri mules, the offsprings of which seem to be a cross between a North Dakota jack rabbit and an Australian kangaroo; and the sum of $1,000 or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the contingent fund of the House to carry out the purpose of this resolution."

Eulogies will be delivered in the Senate today upon the lives and public services of the late Senators Robert Taylor of Tennessee, and George L. Nixon, of Nevada, and Representatives E. H. Madison and A. C. Mitchell, of Kansas. Senator Lea addressed the chamber upon his late colleague, Senator Taylor. Senator Newlands spoke in honor of Nixon, while the tributes to the Kansas representatives were paid by Senator Curtis. Memorial addresses for the late Senator Raynor of Maryland, Hayburn, of Idaho, and Davis, of Arkansas, have still to be heard.

Damage estimated at $4,000 was done by fire which early today swept the basement of the west wing of the new Agricultural Department building. The blaze, which was of unknown origin, started in the stationery room of the northwest corner of the basement. Three stock rooms were gutted while the corridors and some of the other rooms were damaged by smoke and water. b0beshr mht mht mht mht mhtmh had voted almost unanimously to strike. A statement signed by Chairman Elisha Lee, for the committee, says: "Advices received by the Eastern railroads indicate that the 30,000 firemen almost to a man voted 'yes' on the proposition to strike and tie up over 52,000 miles of railroad, rather than accept the offer of the companies to arbitrate through a commission of disinterested men of sufficient numbers adequately to consider the magnitude of the question at issue."

Two persons were killed and another fatally injured last night by a Philadelphia and Reading express train at Roelofs station across the Pennsylvania line, near Trenton, N. J. The dead are Anna Dubar, 25 years old, and Bernard Sickenbaum, 24, both of Stony Hill, Pa. Sarah Dubar, 27 years old, a sister of the dead girl, was brought to a hospital at Trenton and physicians do not expect her to recover. The young women, who are employed in Trenton, had gone to Roelofs to visit friends, and were met at the station by Sickenbaum. In attempting to cross the tracks the trio passed behind the train from which the girls had just alighted and walked directly in front of the express.

Andrew Williams, a negro, was lynched by a mob at Houston, Miss. yesterday. Williams was suspected of having murdered Mrs. John C. Williams, wife of the deputy chancery clerk of that county, who was found dead in her home Thursday. Robbery was believed to have been the murder motive. When the mob attempted to take Williams from the jail he offered desperate resistance but was finally dragged from the building and lynched to a nearby tree. The negro refused to make a confession. The lynching came after admission by two negro women who said they had seen the negro enter the Williams home.

Miss Elsie Fall, daughter of Henry W. Fall, of Indianapolis, Ind., was instantly killed while four other girls were seriously injured at Hamilton, Ohio, last night when a bobsled, upon which they were coasting down a hill, hit a telegraph pole. Fifteen persons were on sled at the time Miss Fall's neck was broken.

Acquited of the charge of committing a murderous assault upon his wife, Frederick O. Beach, the New York millionaire, enjoyed the additional satisfaction yesterday of hearing from the lips of the jury foreman that "there was absolutely nothing against him."

King Alfonso yesterday took a half hour's trip in the dirigible balloon Espana, during which it made a circuit of the capital.

As frost to the bud, and blight to the blossom, even such is self interest to friendship, for confidence cannot dwell where selfishness is porter at the gate. Just so with footwear, you want confidence in the seller and you want it confirmed by the wear of the article. Experience has proven that Marshall keeps on hand the best, and does not recommend them beyond what the wear proves.
